1. All relevant electronic documents must be saved in one project folder titled with the specific DCA Project Number and Project Name in the form of "DCAProjectNumberProjectNamePCCR".
2. In addition to the Project Name and DCA Project Number, please ensure that all items correspond to the Table of Contents, as seen on the PCCR Submission form. See A and B below. Both this required submission form and folder structure are available at <https://www.dca.ga.gov/node/8739>.

Note: All requestors must select the "00 PCCR" folder in the Table of Contents and then select the specific topic(s)/folder(s) pertaining to the specific request. Then at a minimum provide the documents shown there and indicate with an "X" in the far-right column for each.

B. Requirements for Electronic Files/Documents

1. Large files of 3rd party reports- i.e., market studies, appraisals, environmental/engineering reviews, physical needs assessments, redevelopment plans- must allow electronic word searches. Any PDF formats of such files must be created from the original electronic document, not from a scanned paper copy, to be searchable. The author provides this version. Any such documents requiring signatures must be executed on the paper version.
2. Electronic submissions of DCA Excel forms must be in Excel formats, such as the Core Application and the Performance Workbook. Any DCA Excel documents requiring signatures must be signed in the PDF version.
3. Electronic versions of such documents in 1 or 2 above must be identical to the signed paper version if electronic signatures are not used.
4. Small files (letters/forms) requiring signatures must be executed, scanned, and put into PDF format to preserve signatures. The electronic word search capability is not needed for such files.
5. Files containing only standalone maps, photos, charts, etc., also do not need to be searchable.
6. Do not combine the documents for each tab into one combined PDF file. Each document in the Tabs Checklist is required to be standalone.
7. Naming electronic files:
 - a. Use CondensedTitleCaseFormat (no spaces)
 - b. Do NOT use special characters (e.g., &, /, \, $, -, +, *, #, %, @, ".", etc.) or Periods. These prevent your files from being uploaded to the DCA server.
 - c. Remove any references to your version number or version date from the file name
 - d. Name files such that it will be evident to DCA what is in the file without opening it.
 - e. Abbreviate names on files to reduce file path size, but still be easily understood.
 - f. Begin each file name with 4-digit ID numbers (e.g., 0101,0102,0201,0202..) at the beginning of each file name inside each tab/folder to arrange files in the order prescribed by the Tabs Checklist. Please do NOT create additional subfolders. In cases where a folder will be empty, use the same numbering as if all were submitted, add "N/A" to the end of the electronic project name, and skip the number for those documents that will not be submitted.
 - g. Please submit any other supporting documentation you deem appropriate, whether or not it is listed on the Table of Contents (TC). Enter the document's name onto the TC in the selected section and use the above naming conventions for the electronic file name.
