County: Gwinnett

1. What incompatibilities or conflicts between the land use plans of local governments were identified in the process of developing the service delivery strategy?

Gwinnett County is a large county with fifteen municipalities. At present there are no land use conflicts between Gwinnett County and its municipalities. However, a review of the adopted comprehensive plans revealed potential conflicts between land use designations, either county to city or city to city. Therefore, a two pronged approach has been established to ensure that these potential conflicts do not become real incompatibilities:

- a) As an interim measure, the County's conflict resolution process is being revised to require notification of adjoining jurisdictions (municipality to municipality or municipality to unincorporated county) in the event of rezoning of any property bordering a jurisdiction. The process mirrors the annexation procedures except that it provides that, at a minimum there will be physical buffers established between conflicting uses, in the event no other agreement can be reached to offset the potential impact. This process will be adopted by all jurisdictions by June 30.*
- b) As an on-going program, the process also provides for joint review and coordination of land use plans between each of the adjacent jurisdictions as the County and each municipality updates their comprehensive plans per DCA's schedule. This two pronged approach, will mitigate the potential impact of potential land use conflicts between and among all of the local governments in Gwinnett County.*

2. Check the boxes indicating how these incompatibilities or conflicts were addressed:

- amendments to existing comprehensive plans
- adoption of a joint comprehensive plan
- other measures (amend zoning ordinances, add environmental regulations, etc.)

Note: If the necessary plan amendments, regulations, ordinances, etc. have not yet been formally adopted, indicate when each of the affected local governments will adopt them.

If "other measures" was checked, describe these measures:

3. Summarize the process that will be used to resolve disputes when a county disagrees with the proposed land use classification(s) for areas to be annexed into a city. If the conflict resolution process will vary for different cities in the county, summarize each process.

In the event the county or an adjoining municipality disagrees with the proposed land use classification of an area to be annexed into a city, notice is given to the annexing municipality of the perceived conflict. A meeting may then be called to discuss conflict resolution. In the event that the meeting does not produce agreement, a written statement of the disagreement is to be given to the annexing municipality prior to the scheduled public hearing. At the public hearing, the City Clerk of the annexing municipality shall read the written statement into the record and the City Council may proceed to make its decision. Nothing in the process precludes litigation once the decision is made by the annexing jurisdiction.

4. What policies, procedures and/or processes have been established by local governments (and water and sewer authorities) to ensure that new extraterritorial water and sewer service will be consistent with all applicable land use plans and ordinances?

All areas of the county have been identified as being either a county or municipal service area. Gwinnett County and its cities have agreed to the service areas per the attached map, which have the following extraterritorial components: cities in which the County is the sole sewer provider are Berkeley Lake, Dacula, Duluth, Grayson, Lawrenceville, Lilburn, Snellville, Sugar Hill and Suwanee; cities which provide retail sewer service and in which boundaries Gwinnett County also provides retail service are Norcross and Buford; cities which provide retail service outside their city limits are Buford and Braselton; cities in which both the City and Gwinnett County provide sewer service are Norcross, Buford and Loganville; cities in which Gwinnett County is the sole provider of water service are Berkeley Lake, Dacula, Duluth, Lilburn, Grayson, Snellville and Sugar Hill; cities in which both City and Gwinnett County provide retail water service are Buford, Loganville, Norcross, Lawrenceville and Suwanee; Braselton serves all their city plus an area in unincorporated Gwinnett County; Buford and Lawrenceville serve some of their city and some area in unincorporated Gwinnett County. Any additional extraterritorial services must be requested and approved by the receiving jurisdiction.

Land Use Plan Coordination
And Dispute Resolution Processes
Pursuant to Sections 36-70-24(4)(a) and (c)
of the Service Delivery Strategy Act

The law states the following:

[Section 36-70-24(4)(a)] ". . . Local governments within the same county shall, if necessary, amend their land use plans so that such plans are compatible and non-conflicting, or, as an alternative, they shall adopt a single land use plan for the unincorporated and incorporated areas of the county."

[Section 36-70-24(4)(c)] ". . . A process shall be established by July 1, 1998 to resolve land use classification disputes when a county objects to the proposed land use of an area to be annexed into a municipality within the county."

Definitions:

County Sphere of Influence - The area located within a municipality in Gwinnett County as depicted on the Spheres of Influence Map, to be adopted as part of the Service Delivery Strategy. Also any proposed development in a municipality which satisfies the Department of Community Affairs' definition of a Development of Regional Impact for the Atlanta Region.

Municipal Sphere of Influence - The area located in unincorporated Gwinnett County adjacent to a municipality as depicted on the Spheres of Influence Map, to be adopted as part of the Service Delivery Strategy. Also any proposed development in the unincorporated county within one mile of a city limit line which satisfies the Department of Community Affairs' definition of a Development of Regional Impact for the Atlanta Region.

GUIDELINES:

1. Each municipality within Gwinnett County shall establish a "County Sphere of Influence" which shall include all internal parcels touching its municipal boundary and the County shall revise and update its "Municipal Spheres of Influence," by June 30, 1999. By definition the "County/Municipal Spheres of Influence" shall also include all development proposals within a municipality, which qualify as a Development of Regional Impact, as defined by the Department of Community Affairs.

2. Beginning in 1999, each Municipality and the County shall update their official land use plans for the areas encompassed by the County/Municipal Spheres of Influence on at least a biennial basis. All proposed changes (including major/minor updates) to the official land use plans of the Municipalities and the County shall be reviewed jointly by all jurisdictions adjoining the sphere of influence. If any conflicts or issues are identified by such review then a meeting is encouraged to occur between the parties to discuss objections and potential mitigation. In the event that the objections are not mitigated then the objections of the adjoining jurisdictions shall be noted on the official land use plan of each jurisdiction.
3. The County and Municipalities shall provide notice of all rezoning, special use permit, special exception and annexation applications filed within the County/Municipal Spheres of Influence to all jurisdictions adjoining the sphere of influence.
4. Notice of a proposed rezoning or special use permit notice shall be given to the Chairman of the Board of Commissioners, the Director of the Gwinnett County Department of Planning and Development and, if applicable, the mayor and City clerk or other designated city staff person of any city adjoining the sphere of influence. Notice shall be given not later than fifteen days prior to any public hearing and shall include the anticipated schedule of public hearings, and information on the location of the property, parcel acreage, and the change proposed by the application.
5. Notice of a proposed annexation shall be provided to the County Commission in the manner prescribed by state law. In addition, upon receipt of an annexation request, but not later than validation of the of the annexation application, the city shall notify the Director of the Gwinnett County Department of Planning and Development and, if applicable, the mayor and City clerk or other designated city staff person of any city adjoining the sphere of influence, giving notice by certified mail of a proposed annexation, including the anticipated schedule of public hearings, and providing information on the location of the property, size of area, and proposed land use classification(s) and zoning of the property after annexation.
6. If the County/City has substantial objections to the proposed land use or zoning classification(s) contained in application for rezoning/special use permit application or the annexation request, such objection(s) shall be forwarded in writing to the City/County Clerk of the governing jurisdiction prior to the public hearing.
7. Once notice is received from the County/City that land use objections have been raised, a meeting is encouraged to occur between the parties to discuss objections and potential mitigation.
8. In the event that objections are raised, buffers shall be provided as a means of mitigation between incompatible uses. Said buffers shall be equal to the minimum requirements of the governing jurisdiction.

9. In the event that minimum buffering requirements do not satisfy the aggrieved jurisdiction's concerns and an agreement has not been reached for additional mitigation prior to the public hearing before the Governing body of the government of jurisdiction, the Clerk shall read the County/City objections into the record of the formal public hearing prior to final action being taken on the proposed annexation, rezoning or special use permit. The entering of the County/City land use objections into the official record and formal action of the governing body shall constitute the final resolution of the dispute. However, nothing in this agreement shall preclude the County or any City from pursuing any and all legal remedies provided by Georgia law on any issue.
10. This Dispute Resolution Process shall become effective on June 30, 1999.
11. Any of the parties which must sign off on the Service Delivery Strategy pursuant to the Service Delivery Strategies Act may call for a review and possible revision of this process. In no case shall the process be reviewed more than once in a twelve month period.
