MEMORANDUM

TO: Jon West, Georgia Department of Community Affairs

FROM: Greg Boike, Middle Georgia Regional Commission GAB

DATE: January 17, 2017

SUBJECT: Overlapping Service Areas in 2017 Houston County SDS Update

cc: Chairman Tommy Stalnaker, Houston County; Mayor John Harley, City of Centerville; Mayor Jimmy Faircloth, City of Perry; Mayor Randy Toms, City of Warner Robins

BACKGROUND:

Under the Service Delivery Act, as amended in 2008, local governments across the State of Georgia are periodically required to review the delivery of services among jurisdictions within each of Georgia's 159 counties. This law requires local governments to identify and attempt to avoid overlapping areas of service delivery; however, it notes that municipalities providing a service at a higher level than the base level of service throughout the county shall not be considered a duplication of the county service.

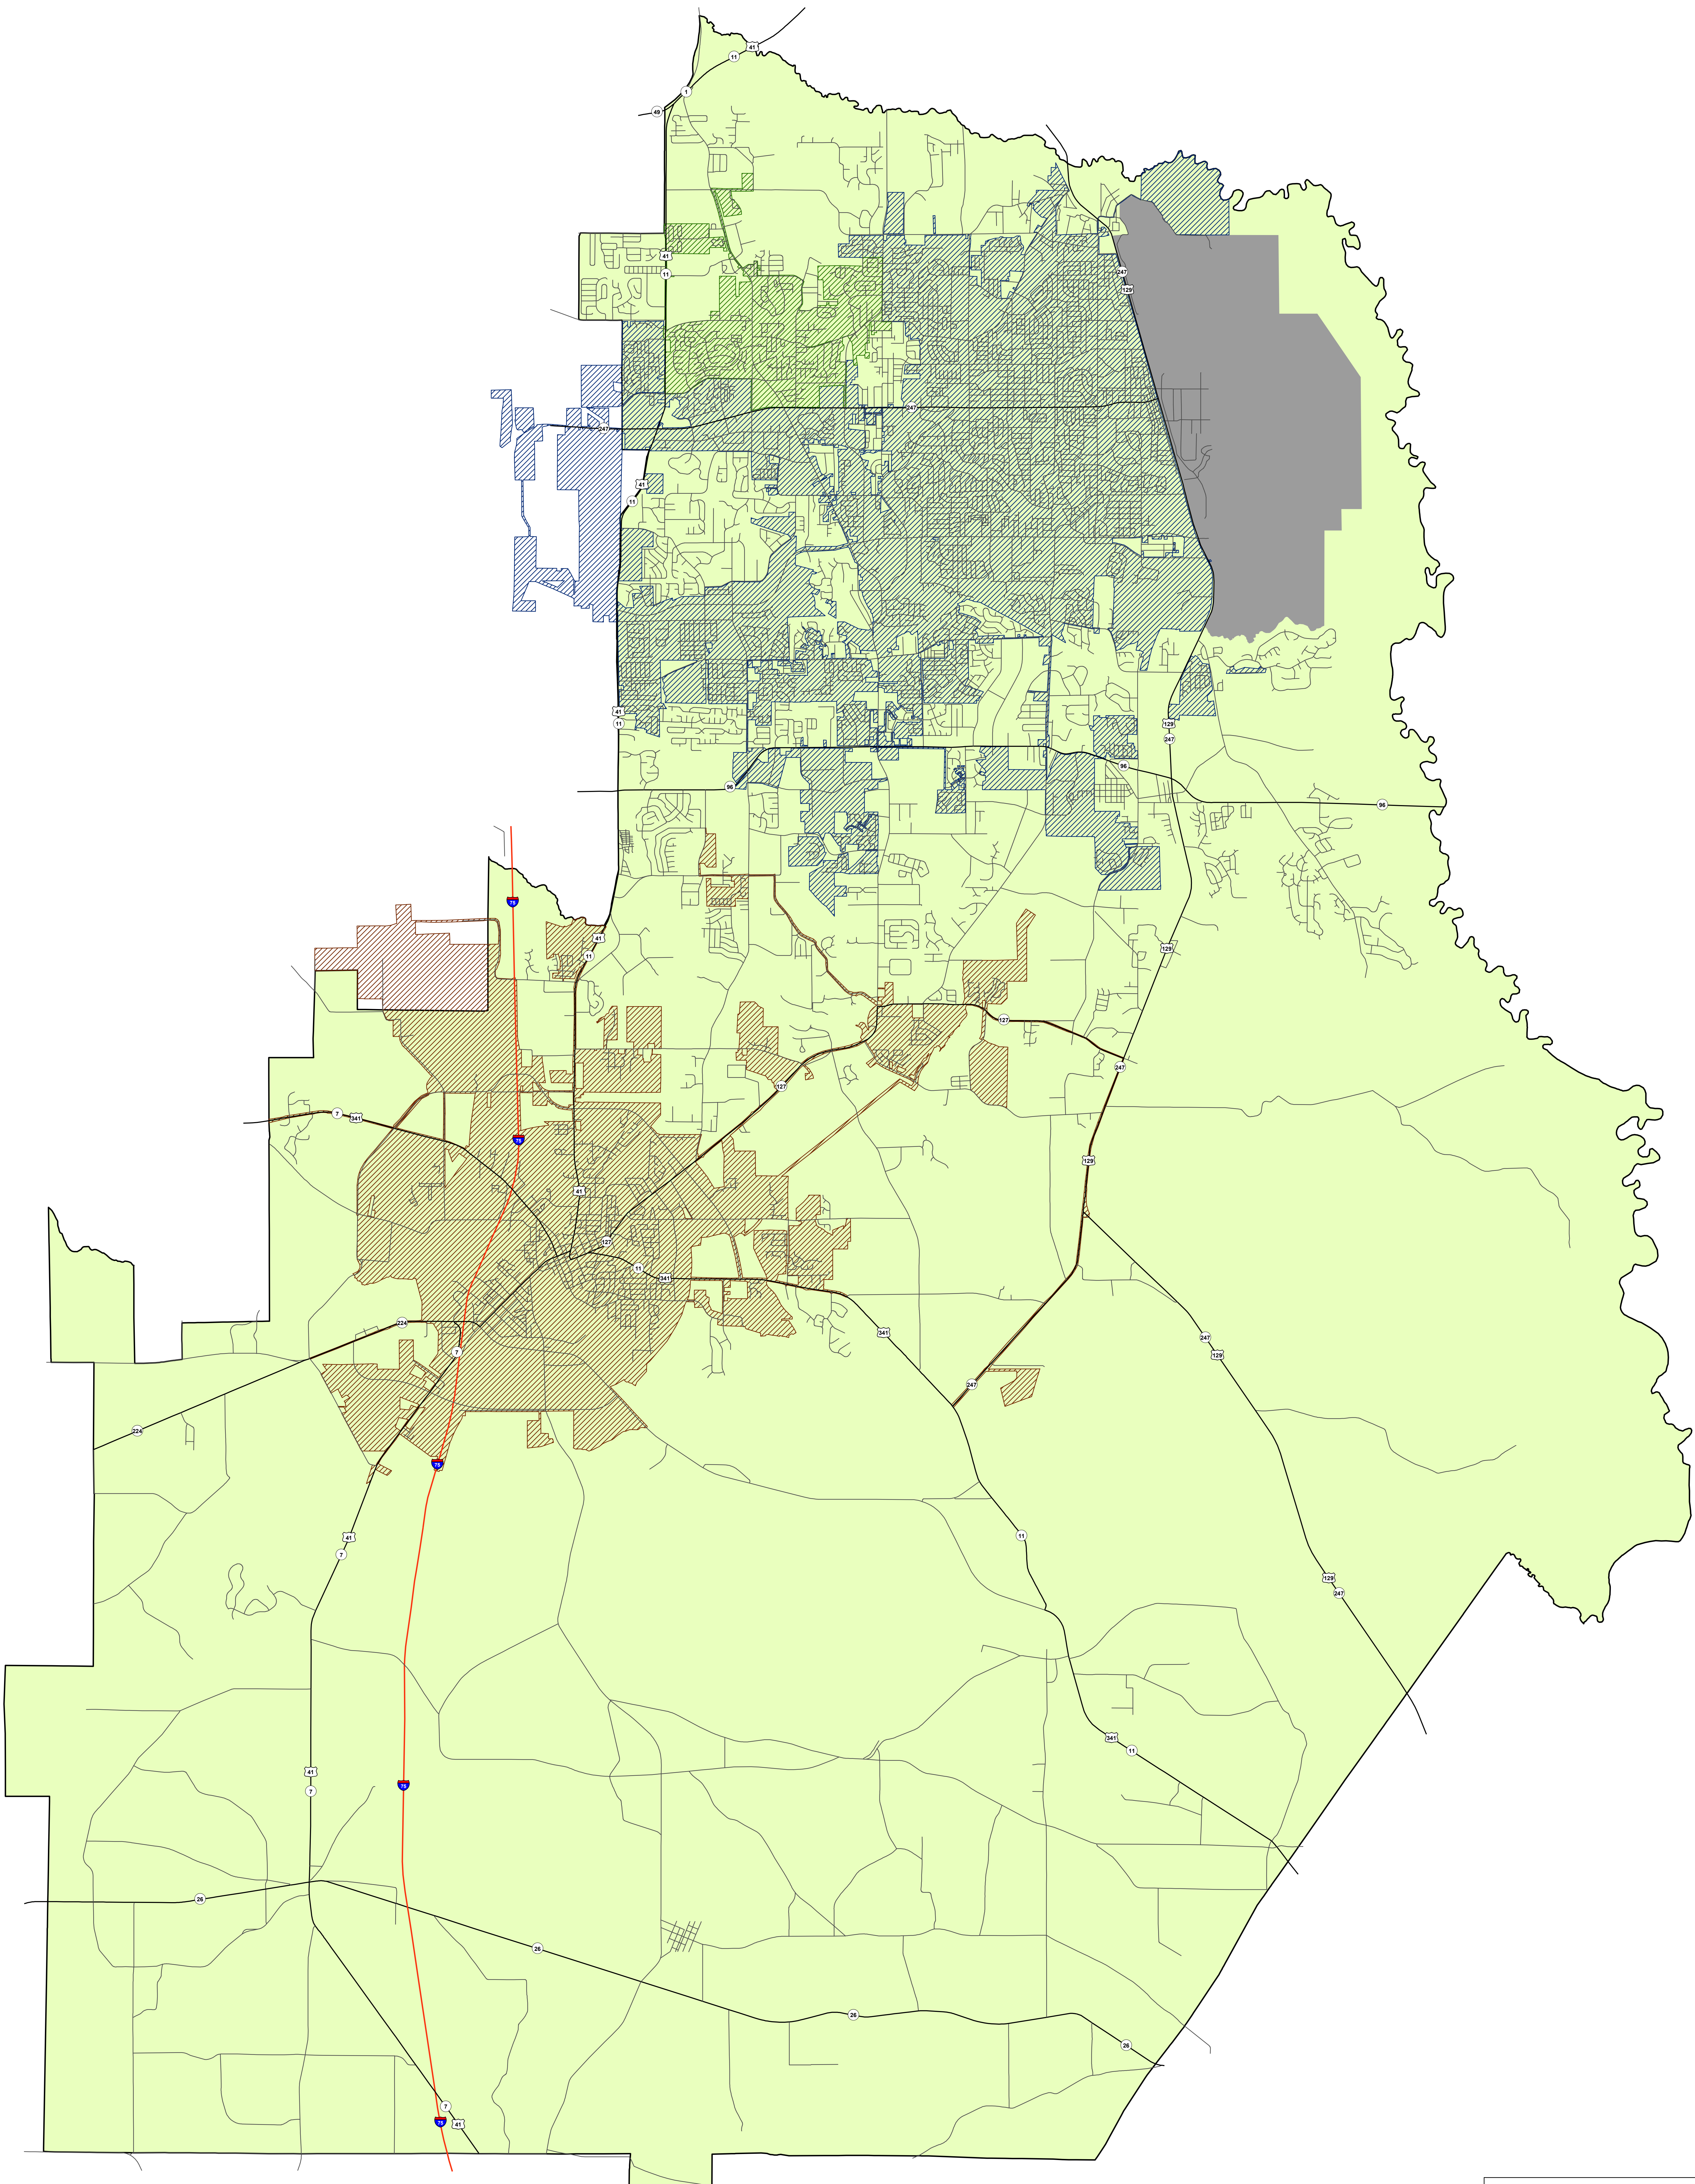

POTENTIAL OVERLAPPING SERVICE AREAS:

Under the 2017 Service Delivery Strategy for Houston County, several services may appear to contain overlapping service areas. Economic Development services are provided by the Houston County Development Authority on a countywide basis, and are also provided within each city. Law Enforcement services are also provided countywide by the Houston County Sheriff's Office, as well as being provided within each city. Finally, Warner Robins and Perry both provide recreation services, which are available countywide.

EXPLANATION OF CONTINUED ARRANGEMENT:

In the case of economic development services and law enforcement services, the municipalities provide a higher level of the base level of service throughout the county and should not be considered a duplication of services. For recreation services, an overriding benefit of duplication exists due to the geographic distance between the two jurisdictions, and due to the variety of specific recreational opportunities provided by each community. Finally, the difficulty in creating exclusionary public spaces also provides justification for this continued arrangement.
