Other Residential Property Ownership

The Borrower may not own any other residential real estate, domestically or internationally, at the time of closing. If the borrower owns a property used solely as a rental and not as a primary residence in the past three years, they must divest their interest before closing.

Exception: The requirement may be waived for active-duty U.S. Military veterans restationed due to military service, provided the other property being vacated was their primary residence, and the borrower is purchasing another primary residence. The vacated property may not have existing bond-financed mortgage assistance.
